About Me

For the past seven years, my parents and I have lived a rather interesting, yet semi-peaceful life in Delia, Kansas. My father, Matthew Raney, has been in the military for twenty-eight years. My mother, Gabriela Raney, has been a teacher, both figuratively and literally, all of my life. I have one sister, Tori, and four nieces/nephews all of who make me smile with just a look. When I'm not studying or busy with ROTC, I am normally watching some of my favorite movies (The Harry Potter series and The Count of Monte Cristo) to unwind. Some of my hobbies would include reading, writing, exercising or just hanging out with friends.

Military Experience/Goals

My short term goals would include going to Airborne or Air Assault School and getting commissioned at the end of my ROTC training (though I am not sure of what branch in the military I want to join). I would also like to attain my degree in Business Management. My long term goals are to have a long career in the military as well as to strive every day to be a hard working soldier in the military in whatever position I find myself in.
